

Before you look at the HSS 219 schedule...

Crucial notes about HSS 219
(College of Health & Social Services Computer Classroom and Lab)
before you request a reservation for use of this facility.

- Maximum student capacity: 25
- Because of the specialized technology in this room, including the microphones on the table, this room should not be scheduled by presenters and/or instructors who are not able to stay with the students and other occupants throughout the entire time the reservation lasts.
- If you plan on being in and out of the room and another instructor or HSS staff person specific trained in the use of the room does not remain in the room, we ask that you not ask to reserve this facility.
- If you are willing to complete training so that you may use this room for specialized two-way video or technology-based instruction, please contact Rex Suba in the College of Health and Social Services (chssmrc@nmsu.edu; 575-646-4388).
