

Envir. Health & Safety
1620 Standley Dr., Acad. Research C,
MSC3578, Box 30001,
New Mexico State University,
505-646-3327 / 646-7898 fax

Announcement: 2006 Fall CPR (adult) classes

This memo is to announce the fall semester schedule for CPR (adult) classes. The classes will be provided by NMSU Police instructors at the Safety training facility room 110, Academic Research Unit C, at 1620 Standley Drive (map).

The CPR classes will be provided as follows (training calendar):

- September 12, Tuesday afternoon, 2-4 pm (max. 12 persons)
- October 17, Tuesday afternoon, 2-4 pm (max. 12 persons)
- November 21, Tuesday afternoon, 2-4 pm (max. 12 persons)

Interested parties should register in advance via the EH&S Safety website to ensure the class is held and seating is available.

- There is a cost of $20 per person for the class. Payment can be NMSU account, cash or check. Cost includes the manual, enclosed CD, class instruction and registration certificate. Attendees must pick up their CPR manual in advance from EH&S office.
- Certification is good for two years.
- The classes are open to the University community. Any NMSU associated individual may attend.
- Classes sizes are limited. Please register in advance to ensure class is held and seating is available.

REGISTRATION - Please register via the EH&S Safety website

<http://www.nmsu.edu/~safety>

Thank you

David Shearer, Industrial Hygienist
Environmental Health & Safety 646-3327