

Honor a loved one at Corbett Center

As part of the “NMSU Aggies are Tough Enough to Wear Pink” campaign, the public is invited to showcase photos of loved ones who have struggled with breast cancer. The photos will be displayed on the NMSU Walls of Honor the week of October 13 inside the Corbett Center Student Union Art Gallery located on the second floor.

You may drop off your photo at the Corbett Center Information Desk between 8am-6pm, Oct. 6-17. The photograph must be no larger than 8”x10”.

Photographs may be picked up at the information desk the week of October 20.

For additional information, please call 575-646-4530. Please visit the official “NMSU Aggies are Tough Enough to Wear Pink” Web site: www.PinkAggie.com

Luminarias light up Aggie Memorial Stadium

As part of the “NMSU Aggies are Tough Enough to Wear Pink” campaign, Aggie Memorial Stadium will light over 2,000 luminarias October 15 at 7:15 p.m. Those wishing to purchase a luminaria in honor of a friend or loved one may do so at:

NMSU Aggies are “Tough Enough to Wear Pink”

New Mexico State University will trade in their trademark crimson color for pink the week of October 12 to raise breast cancer awareness. The large white “A” on Aggie Mountain will also receive a one-week makeover as over 1,200 pink lights will remind the community each night that NMSU Aggies are “Tough Enough to Wear Pink”.

Some of the events planned throughout the week include a kick-off party, a luminaria ceremony, an art display, pink merchandise sales, a wall of honor, and a walk/run fundraiser. In addition, the Health Center will perform free clinical breast exams throughout the entire month of October. A complete list of events can be found at <http://www.pinkaggie.com/schedule.php> and will be updated as new information becomes available.

The week-long event will end in grand style as we ask all attendees of the Aggies vs. San Jose State football game to wear pink and root on NMSU to victory! “Who will you wear pink for?”
