

William J. Corbett, Esq.

NMSU Departments of Government and Criminal Justice
Dept. 3BN, P.O. Box 30001, Las Cruces, NM 88003-8001
Tel: 505-646-4352 Email: wcorbett@nmsu.edu

- Education
- Juris Doctor (1984)
University of Illinois, College of Law, Champaign, IL
 - Master of Public Administration (1979) Thesis: Optimizing Worker Motivation.
Pennsylvania State University, University Park, PA
 - Bachelor of Arts (1975) Major: Political Science
Pennsylvania State University, University Park, PA
 - Associate of Applied Science (2005) Major: Computer Technology
 - Associate of Business Office Technology (2005) Major: Business Office Technology
New Mexico State University, Las Cruces, NM
- Bar Licenses California (1984); New Mexico (1998); U.S. Supreme Court; U.S. Court of Appeals: Fifth, Seventh, Ninth, and Tenth Circuits; U.S. District Court: New Mexico and all California federal districts. All bar licenses and admissions are active.
- Publications
- Corbett, W., (1999). An analysis of 1998 New Mexico jury tort verdicts. New Mexico Bar Journal, Fall 1999, 48-52.
 - Corbett, W., (1996). Election issues: threats and opportunities for the civil justice system. Consumer Attorneys of California Forum, October 1996, 64-65.
- Employment
- Assistant Professor/Instructor New Mexico State University (Criminal Justice and Government), University of Texas at El Paso (Business Law and Political Science), Eastern New Mexico University (Political Science), Western New Mexico University (Political Science and Criminal Justice), El Paso Community College (Government), and Dona Ana Community College (Criminal Justice and Government). NMSU Government Professor of the Year in 2006 and Criminal Justice Instructor of the Year (runner-up) in 2007.
 - 2001-present Duties: Instruct courses, ranging from 10 to 100+ students; develop curriculum, including lectures, examinations, writing and research projects; complete all grading; and attend department and committee meetings.
 - 2005-present Facilitator/Mediator Third Judicial District, Las Cruces, NM

Duties: Contact litigants and counsel of civil court cases for the district court, calendar facilitations/mediations, review each party's documents and court files, conduct mediations and attempt to facilitate settlements of the litigation, prepare reports of the outcome of the facilitations/mediations for the district court.
 - 2004-present New Mexico Attorney Monitor Lawyers Assistance Program, Albuquerque, NM

Duties: On a pro bono basis, meet with attorneys who have been provisionally readmitted to the New Mexico Bar, review drug test reports and AA meeting logs, discuss CLE requirements, discuss issues of concern with the attorneys, and monitor compliance with bar requirements in an effort to assist the attorneys in satisfying all imposed conditions to be fully readmitted to the bar.

2000-2001 Assistant District Attorney District Attorney's Office, Las Cruces, NM

Duties: Perform legal research, prepare motions and briefs, use computer research to obtain history of prior DWI offenses, obtain and analyze NCIC and DMV records, interview police officers and witnesses, prepare witness lists and determine appropriate charges for DWI cases.

1990-1997 Attorney Norman, Dowler, Sawyer, Israel, & Hancock, Ventura, CA

Duties: Perform client intake and case evaluation, conduct research, prepare pleading and discovery documents, handle law and motion matters, conduct settlement negotiations and litigate cases in state and federal court. Practice areas: business, real property, personal injury and employment litigation.

Serve as a judge pro tem for the municipal court (1990-1997), an arbitrator for the superior court (1988-1997), a settlement officer for the superior court (1993-1997), and a board member of the Ventura County Bar Association (1996-1997) and Trial Lawyers Association (board member, 1992-1997; president, 1996-1997).

1985-1990 Attorney Brown & Goldberg, Oxnard, CA

Duties: Interview potential clients; draft pleadings; conduct research; argue law and motion matters; conduct discovery; negotiate, arbitrate and try cases; and enforce judgments. Practice areas: personal injury and workers' compensation.

1983-1985 Attorney (1984-85); Law Clerk (1983) Archbald and Spray, Santa Barbara, CA

Duties: Research and prepare pleadings, argue law and motion matters, conduct discovery, arbitrate and try cases. Practice area: insurance defense.

1982-summer Law Clerk Office of the State Appellate Defender, Mount Vernon, IL

Duties: Examine indigent clients' trial and sentencing transcripts, interview incarcerated clients, identify and research appealable issues, and write appellate briefs. Practice area: appellate criminal defense.

1979-1980 Management Consultant Alexander Proudfoot Company, Chicago, IL

Duties: Design and install work-scheduling systems for clients in the United States, Canada, and Belgium; train client personnel and management; and prepare progress and status reports regarding newly installed systems.

1977-1979 Domestic Relations Hearing Officer Court of Common Pleas, Beaver, PA

Duties: Conduct child and spouse support hearings, draft support agreements, prepare hearing summaries, testify in court and compile case disposition reports.