

The New Mexico State University History Department Presents

Arriving in America:

The Challenge of Immigrants and Minorities in Modern American History

“Americans Immigrate Constantly”: Historic Ironies and Reversals that Made the Modern U.S.-Mexican Border

Anthony Mora, University of Michigan
7:30 pm, January 31, 2012
College of Health and Social Services Auditorium

Race, Immigration, and Citizenship in the United States: The Irish Experience as Racial Odyssey

Matthew Jacobson, Yale University
7:30 pm, February 7, 2012
College of Health and Social Services Auditorium

Pane Amaro (Bitter Bread): The Italian American Journey from Despised Immigrants to Honored Citizens

Film Screening and discussion with filmmaker Gianfranco Norelli
7:30 pm, February 16, 2012
College of Health and Social Services Auditorium

The African-American Great Migration: Making the “Color Line” National

Spencer Crew, George Mason University
7:30 pm, February 20, 2012
College of Health and Social Services Auditorium

East European Jewish Immigrants: Unwanted in the Land of Promise

Hasia Diner, New York University
7:30 pm, February 23, 2012
College of Health and Social Services Auditorium

The First “Illegals”: The Legacy of the Chinese Exclusion Act of 1882

Charlotte Brooks, Baruch College, CUNY
7:30 pm, March 8, 2012
College of Health and Social Services Auditorium

Capstone Lecture

The Suppression of Immigrants’ Rights and the Impending Crisis of Citizenship

David Gutierrez, University of California at San Diego, 7:30 pm, March 12, 2012, NMSU Stan Fulton Center

Live, Learn and Thrive.™